Movies that Dance!

Sans Souci is a niche international film festival specializing in dance cinema and incorporating live performance.

Two distinct evenings of screenings feature a variety of dance cinema shorts, ranging from funny to tragic, and include works from Canada, Finland, France, Germany, Netherlands, Portugal, Spain, Sweden, United Kingdom, and across the US. Both shows feature Sini Haapalinna from Finland performing “Live Cinematic Trans Flux.” Come browse the dance cinema installation on the video monitors in the Carsen Theatre before the shows.
